

Assignment Question: -

As we see image grouping in html in lesson 9 of this course and we also seen the practical implementation of it on visual studio code The assignment is to make something with grouping by what we studied today Submit two screenshots one of code and second one for output result. Don't submit .html file otherwise will be marked